

Sandra Binns- Johnstone

With sadness Sandra passed away on October 14. In her last years, Sandra suffered from Alzheimers.

She contributed much to the world of Scottish dance, and especially her work on TAC.

In the December 1984 issue of TACTALK, aside from her many SCD accomplishments, we learned Sandra was a “crack shot with a rife” and also an equestrian, a sailor, and a cross-country skier”.